

YOUTH 2022 Recycled Sculpture winners

4th grade 1st place Alana Fiocchi Texas

Owl - Alana listed 10 recycled items; including egg carton, plastic forks, soda can, pipe cleaners, and more.

The stick her owl is perched on came from her back yard.

2nd Place Addyson Burns, West Virginia. 3rd place Sydney Friedt, Washington. Honorable Mention: Aniyah Bell, Georgia. Josiah Scalzitti, Indiana

5th Grade 1st place Isabella River Georgia

Honey Bee Hive. "Bees are very important for pants and people".

2nd place Jaden Wells, Georgia. 3rd place Maria Hutelmyer,

Pennsylvania. Honorable Mention: Alina Khokhar, Connecticut.

Dallas Torres, Kansas. Cain Murray/Raina Waddell, W. Virginia.

Noah Shields, Michigan.

6th Grade 1st place

Casey Farkas Pennsylvania

Ugh the Turtle - "his name is from the noise he makes. Made from recyclable beer cans. Some species are endangered due to the many types of recyclables in the ocean". 2nd place Macie Brown, Mississippi. 3rd place Jaylah Fisher, Michigan. Honorable Mention: Hailey Larson, Washington. Mauricio Layva, Kansas.

7th Grade 1st place

Aaron Dale, Mississippi

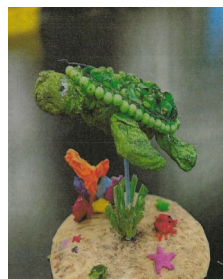

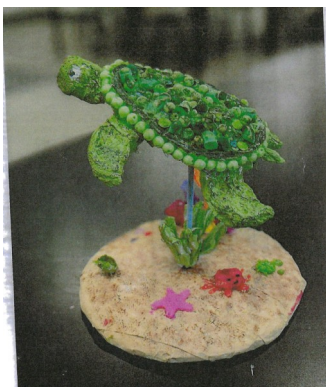

"The Whale represents the trouble in our life....the ship represent you, the dictionary the vast sea of school..."

2nd place Mary Smythe, Washington.

3rd place Kiernan Weinmann, Texas

Honorable Mention: Roman Maximus Doram, Ohio.

Adam Guertin, Connecticut.

8th Grade 1st place

Isabel Carter, Texas

Sea Turtle "I made this turtle because I think its important to remind people about recycling".

2nd place Dylan Lohr, Florida.

3rd place Lillianne Serfass, Pennsylvania

Honorable Mention Ashley Morke, Washington