

NATIONAL GARDEN CLUBS, INC
AWARDS BANQUET
89TH ANNUAL CONVENTION
Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
May 23, 2018

The awards presented during this 89th convention of National Garden Clubs are for entries that reflect projects/activities that occurred in 2017. A project may be new or continued.

(Yearbooks were judged on the state and regional levels. Each region selected First Place winners in each category to be awarded NGC certificates of commendation) All other awards were judged at state level and the First Place Winners forwarded to national. The OVERALL WINNERS received a check for $100, unless indicated otherwise, (with the exceptions of Publication Awards and Flower Show Achievement Awards which receive Certificates only, or Certificates and a Rosette) Congratulations to all for outstanding applications!

We have made every effort to ensure that all awards were properly distributed and correctly printed. If you discover an error, please contact the National Awards Chairman, Mary Ann Ferguson-Rich, (mafr43@hotmail.com), and she will be happy to assist you.

Div-Salisbury Garden Club (Virginia)

#CS-2 The Kellogg Civic Achievement Award

OVERALL WINNER: TUPELO GARDEN CLUB CS-2 Aii (Georgia)

This club plants all over their city of 35,000! 1,000 pink tulips this year at three locations, a city-wide daffodil planting in January, multiple plantings at Sanctuary Hospice House, shrubs at Bark Park along Veteran’s Blvd, the beds in spring and fall at the Lee County Library. When do they have time to plant their own gardens?

Ai-Warren East Garden Club (Kentucky)
Aiii-Poway Valley Garden Club (California) Tie
Aiii-Plano Garden Club (Texas) Tie
Aiv-Elmhurst Garden Club (Illinois)

#CS-3 The Fisher Garden Center Award

OVERALL WINNER: Brandon Garden Club CS-3 Aii (Mississippi)

The Brandon Garden Club is allocated space at the Brandon Public Library to provide gardening information and resources for the residents of Brandon. A mini-education center has been created over five years, for both children and adults. The focus is on Mississippi’s native plants and 1800s heritage plants that are part of today’s landscape.

Ai-Spring Lake Garden Club of Pearl (Mississippi)
Aiii-Watkinsville Garden Club (Georgia)
Aiv-Thomasville Garden Club (Georgia)

#CS-4 Food Bank Donations

OVERALL WINNER: Anna-Jo Garden Club CS-4 Aii (Illinois)

This club grows food at the Union County Food Gardens located across the parking lot from the Shawnee Development Council Food Pantry. Food is provided to 300 weekly food bank participants during the growing season and to 150.00 seniors.

Great work!

#CS-5 Special Achievement

OVERALL WINNER: Delaware Federation of Garden Clubs CS-5D -This state had a TREE-mendous Delaware Tree Planting at Delaware Botanic Gardens. They undertook the responsibility for a project to plant trees in the Woodland Garden area of Delaware Botanic Gardens. Fund-raising, raising awareness of the botanical garden, creation of brochures, promotion of the project, and some hands-on tree planting got the goal accomplished!

Ai-Greeley Morning Garden Club (Colorado)

Aii-New Albany Garden Club (Mississippi)

Aiii-Westerville Garden Club (Ohio)

Aiv-Edmonds Floretum Garden Club (Washington State)

B-Federated Council of New Orleans Garden Clubs (Louisiana)

C-Janice Broussard (New Iberia Garden Club) (Louisiana)

#CB-1 ROADSIDE BEAUTIFICATION

OVERALL WINNER: Atkinson Garden Club CB-1 Aii (New Hampshire) The New Hampshire Old Stagecoach Cultural and Scenic Byway runs right through Atkinson, NH. This club sold daffodil bulbs to the public, 8,200 of which were designated to go for public planting. On "Make A Difference Day" teams of residents, club members and civic groups planted over 6,000 bulbs on the historic byway. What an accomplishment!

Ai-Roberts Town & Country Garden Club (Idaho)

Aiii-Garden Club of Rogers (Arkansas)

Aiv-Cress Creek Garden Club (Illinois)

Bv-Magnolia District Garden Club of Georgia

C-The Garden Club of Georgia

#CB-2 COMMUNITY BEAUTIFICATION

OVERALL WINNER: Rutland Garden Club (New Hampshire) CB-2 Biii For the ongoing project of maintaining 20 gardens in the Rutland area. Gardens are located at the entrances to downtown, a senior center, at the regional hospital, a Blue Star Memorial Marker, a garden at the library, the art center, a Viet Nam Memorial and other locations. This effort has been maintained for decades!

#EC-1 The Lucille Droege Mauntel Conservation Award in honor of Shirley Nicolai

OVERALL WINNER: Suburban Garden Club of Germantown EC-1 Ai (Tennessee) This club partnered with the City of Germantown on improving a garden area near the library by correcting some of the erosion and water problems. This was accomplished by converting a retention basin on the east side of the library into a large rain garden. The club was involved in months of planning, providing many plants and assisting in the both the creation and future maintenance of the rain garden. Outstanding work!

Ai-Elmbrook Garden Club (Wisconsin) (Tie)
Aii-Mt. Airy Garden Club (Maryland)
Aiv-Barrington Garden Club (Rhode Island)
C-Charlotte Scott (Aldersgate Garden Club) (Tennessee)

#EC-2 Litter/Recycling/Reclamation (The Harriet Thomas Award)

OVERALL WINNER: Bonita Valley Garden Club EC-2 Aiii (California) Every Thursday, throughout the year, even when a Thursday falls on a holiday, members walk the Stephanie Rossi Trail, picking up trash, and pulling invasive weeds. It takes about 1 1/2 hours to walk the trail! Once a month they water new trees at Sweetwater Regional Park's Morrison Pond.

Ai-Greensboro Garden Club (Alabama)
Aii-Roswell Garden Club (Georgia)
Aiii-Sogkonate Garden Club (Rhode Island)
Aiv-Salisbury Garden Club (Virginia)

#EC-3 Conservation Education (The Hazel Johnson Award)

OVERALL WINNER: Peoria Garden Club EC-3 Aiv (Texas) This club carried out eight conservation education activities in 2017, including an Earth Day even where the plight of the monarch was shared with the public; a "Clean Water Celebration" event, and "Art and Science in the Woods", an entire week of educating 120 plus children about monarchs and their needs! This club is clearly dedicated to Conservation Education!

Ai-Oak Hill Garden Club (Tennessee)
Aii-Marion Garden Club (Illinois)
Aiii-A & M Garden Club (Texas)

#EC-4 Birds (The Nannine C. Wallis Award)

OVERALL WINNER: Comal Garden Club EC-4 Aii (Texas) This club established a bird sanctuary at Kirkwood Manor Nursing Home in 1987. Each club member is required to participate in this project by going out in teams to provide food to the birds on a bi-weekly schedule (or providing financial support if physically unable). This project accomplishes two worthy goals- helping to support the wild bird population, and providing the enjoyment of studying birds in their natural habitats for the residents, staff and visitors to the nursing home.

Ai-Pine Tree Garden Club (Georgia) (Tie)

Ai-Rainesville Garden Club (Alabama)

Aiii-Gates Mills Garden Club (Ohio)

#EC-5 Pollinators

OVERALL WINNER: Worthington Hills Garden Club EC-5 Aiii (Ohio) This club ambitiously set a goal of having 50 pollinator-friendly gardens planted and registered on the 'Million Pollinator Challenge' website by the end of June, 2017. They not only accomplished, but exceeded their goal! This was done in celebration of the club's 50th Anniversary.

Ai-Georgiana Garden Club (Alabama) (Tie)

Ai-Two Creeks Garden Club (Kentucky) (Tie)

Aii-Tupelo Garden Club (Mississippi) (Tie)

Aii-South Schuylkill Garden Club (Pennsylvania)

Aiv-Peoria Garden Club (Illinois)

Bv-Thomasville Garden Club (Georgia)

#EC-6 Water

OVERALL WINNER: Seasons IV Garden Club EC-6 Ai (Virginia) This project involved Tazewell County Public Schools, 5th, 6th & 7th Grade students, in cooperation with the Tazewell County Soil and Water Conservation District. Students learned about their watershed and the importance of keeping it clean and they also learned about aquaponics. The club worked with 711 students and 38 teachers.

#EC-7 Organic Gardening Practices

OVERALL WINNER: Ider Garden Club EC-7 Ai (Alabama) Ider Garden Club mentored Helping Hands Junior Garden Club as they planted a pesticide free community garden, learned how to help with erosion caused by heavy rains, and made their own compost. This young club is on its way to an organic gardening future!

Aii-Garden Club of Dearborn (Michigan)

Aiii-Mystic Garden Club (Connecticut)

B-Wise County Christian School Junior Garden Club

Arranger of the Year: Ann C. Lange Andover, Massachusetts
International Arranger of the Year: Maria Elena Sanchez Garcia
Monclova Coahuila, Mexico

#FD-2 Floral Design Program

OVERALL WINNER: Artesia Garden Club FD-2 Ai (New Mexico)

This club had a terrific idea to promote entries in design in the local county fair. They developed the "Create and Enter a Design" category, where those attending the fair were provided all materials necessary to create a design and enter it on the spot! All were welcome to create and enter a design, with or without assistance from a club member. Twenty-three children, 47 adults and six garden club members created designs to be entered in the Flower Show.

#G-1 Container Gardening

OVERALL WINNER: Blakely Szosz G-1 A (Barrington Garden Club) (Rhode Island)

Blakely created a seasonal container garden specifically for Thanksgiving with live, growing plant material, cut materials and holiday ornamentation. The container was a beautiful highlight throughout the winter season (not the usual time for container gardening!) A great idea.

Ci-Morning Garden Club (New Mexico)

Ciii-Rutland Garden Club (Vermont)

Di-Greensboro Garden Club (Alabama)

Dii-Redstone Garden Club (Alabama)

#G-2 Edible Gardening

OVERALL WINNER: Western Hills Garden Club G-2 Civ (Ohio) This club plants and maintains a vegetable garden at the Bethany House shelter for homeless women and children and those seeking shelter from abusive homes. Currently they are growing tomatoes, potatoes, cucumbers, spaghetti squash, watermelon, zucchini, peppers and herbs. A Garden to Table dinner was held for staff and residents, in which all of the dishes were made from food grown in the garden.

#G-3 Therapy Gardens

OVERALL WINNER: Thomas Jefferson Garden Club G-3 Aii (Virginia) This club refurbished and renovated a rooftop garden at the Hunter Holmes McGuire Veterans Administration Medical Center. In the past seven years of involvement with this project, the club “learned a great deal about the impact of the harsh environment on the rooftop garden plantings”. This garden serves veterans that are patients of the Polytrauma Medical Unit, their families, friends and hospital staff. This unit is only one of four in the nation and provides care to many of the terribly injured war veterans from WWII through the current conflicts in Iraq and other areas.

#HP-1 The May Duff Walter Achievement Award for Preservation of Beauty

OVERALL WINNER: Kent Garden Club HP-1 Aiv (Michigan)

In 2014, this club became aware of a garden and landscape at the Brookby Estate in East Grand Rapids, which was designed by the Olmsted Brothers. The site was in disrepair, garden walls falling apart, heaving walkways and the original plantings had all been removed. The club researched the history and plans for the garden and began a major restoration project that is ongoing. Over $400,000 was needed in grant funding and club members have spent hundreds of hours recreating this garden, including a magnificent tulip planting which came into full bloom in the spring of 2017. This historic garden has a bright future due to the tireless efforts of this club!

#L-1 Blue Star Memorial Highway Marker

OVERALL WINNER: Penobscot District Garden Clubs L-1 B A Blue Star Memorial Marker was relocated from a no longer suitable location to a spot near the Maine Veterans home in Bangor. A lovely garden was created to show color in three seasons. The club maintains the garden on a continuing basis.

Ai-Brookhaven Garden Club (Texas)
Aii-Bloomfield Garden Club (Maine)
Civ-Camellia District, The Garden Club of Georgia

#L-2 Blue Star Memorial Byway Marker

OVERALL WINNER: Westerville Garden Club L-2 Aiii (Ohio) This club installed a Blue Star Memorial Marker in Westerville, the year of our garden club's 70th Anniversary. The location was Hanby Park. This location is very visible to the public because it is installed along the Ohio to Erie Trail, which runs from Cincinnati to Cleveland.

Ai-Serendipity Garden Club (Ohio)
Aii-Trent Woods Garden Club (North Carolina)
Aiii-West Valley Garden Club (California)
B-Old Town Garden Club, Sharpsburg (Georgia)

#L-3 Blue Star Memorial Marker at a National Cemetery, Veterans Facility or other civic location

OVERALL WINNER: Hunt Garden Club L-3 Aiv The Blue Star Memorial Marker located at the entrance to the Veterans Administration & Hospital in Kerrville was in need of restoration and this club undertook the project. Their goal was to create a beautiful and intimate respite, for now and the future and they succeeded admirably!
