Pam Braun- Flower Show
Procedure and Horticulture
Instructor:

Pam Braun has been a garden club member for almost 50 years and is also currently a member for the TN Federation of Garden Clubs and Deep South Garden Clubs, Inc. She is an NGC accredited master flower show judge, an NGC horticulture, flower show procedure, symposium instructor, and member of numerous plant societies. She specializes in exhibiting collections and displays of numerous different plant groups and has won many top exhibitor awards for her horticulture. Besides horticulture, she enjoys floral design and has been a speaker, leader of workshops, or exhibitor at all levels from district to internationally. She has enjoyed growing plants all her life and the plant material she uses for both designs and instruction often come from her own garden or indoor plants.

NGC recommends that Course I is taken before any other FSS Courses.

Cathy Waitinas-Design Instructor:
Cathy Waitinas is a National Garden Club Master Accredited Flower Show Judge and Design Instructor. She is a member of Arrissa Garden Club and Garden Guild Garden Clubs, Creative Floral Arrangers of the Americas, and the Society of American Florists. Cathy taught school and spent 30+ years in the nuclear industry in safety and technical writing, She and her husband, Jerry, live out in the country near Oliver Springs, Tennessee. Cathy enjoys carpentry projects and giving Design programs.

Flower Show School is a comprehensive program that teaches all you need to know about judging, entering, competing, and chairing an NGC Flower Show. There are 4 courses each generally scheduled over a 2–3-day period, and each with a specific curriculum that includes horticulture, design, and flower show procedure (FSP). If you are considering becoming a flower show judge, planning to chair a flower show, or simply want to learn more, contact our state Flower Show School Chairman or visit garden club.org.
