INSTRUCTORS

Design: Gina Jogan

Gina started her career when she graduated from Florida State University with a B.S. in Elementary Education and Mathematics. She has long been an instructor for NGC Symposia, Design and Allied topics.

Gina has long service to the Deep South Regional activities. She has been an administrator and instructor of Floral Design at all levels of the NGC structure.

While Gina has been busy with Flower School responsibilities, she has broadened her interests through travel, needlework and quilting. She was married to Stephen for 46 years and is the proud grandmother of five grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

This is her third trip to San Diego to teach design for California Garden Clubs' Flower Show Schools. We welcome Gina to our classroom to broaden our views of Floral Design through the mediums of Floral Table Designs.

Horticulture: David Robson

David Robson has been an educator and horticultural specialist for over 40 years near his home in Southern Illinois. He was affiliated with the University of Illinois before he retired. David has been an active Garden Club member in his area and in the state of Illinois serving in a variety of positions.

He has been a highly requested Flower Show School instructor since 2008. He also has had many important positions on the National level. David currently serves on the NGC Board of Directors as the Plant America Chairman. He has enjoyed being an Illinois Food Judge at the Illinois State Fair for the past 12 years.
