Design

Anna Burns, hailing from Griffin, GA, is author of the Guide to the New Petite - Floral Design 12" and Under, which is featured on the Recommended Reading List for NGC Flower Show Schools. She has transitioned her expertise in teaching and leadership in public education to the realm of floral design. As a Master Flower Show Judge and Garden Club of Georgia Basic and Advanced Basic Design instructor, Anna has delivered presentations and conducted workshops across the Southeastern United States, including four appearances at the Creative Floral Arrangers of the Americas. Her designs have been showcased in several national publications.

Horticulture

Daneille Brabazon is a Pennsylvania farm girl at heart who earned a PhD in Chemistry and tenure before deciding her life would be greener staying home with her two children. The world of garden clubs presented itself, the seed was planted in her neighborhood club and now, 25 years later, she has bloomed into President of the National Capital Area Garden Club, the state associated with Washington DC. Her passion for knowledge has resulted in NGC Four Star status with a goal to become a Five Star. Her husband supports the ever changing landscape of their backyard as they experiment with vegetables, shrubs and perennials. Danielle loves to travel and looks forward to inspiring others. She is a Life Judge.
